MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Udall Committee Open Hearing with Nuclear Regulatory Commission (Principally [redacted])

25X1

1. Around 1600 [redacted] the undersigned called NRC asking for feedback on the Udall Committee meeting; Mr. McTiernan, Director of the Office of Inspector and Auditor gave the following account:

25X1

a. The [redacted] Udall hearing concentrated on [redacted] since it could not discuss the classified "CIA" portions of the [redacted] case. There was an exchange of views between several members of the Committee and [redacted] and practically nothing else. The Committee did not call any of the other NRC sources to testify.

b. The only reference to CIA was a comment by Congressman Tsongas that he read both the classified and unclassified reports to NRC and that CIA classification was absurd.

c. Everyone marveled at the different reactions of the many persons at the Duckett briefing.

d. Udall said that his next step is to determine whether there had been a diversion of [redacted] materials or not due to its implications concerning the Committee's responsibilities on safeguards.

2. OLC notified of above conversation with NRC on [redacted]
